CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH VIEWS FILM

"Operation Abolition" was shown Friday evening at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church to members of the church and precinct. The pastor, Reverend Frederic Reynard, introduced the film by the reading of a half hour analysis as published by the National Council of Christian Churches of America. After the film was shown, the pastor elaborated on the points which he considered to be shortcomings. Questions and statements were then heard from the audience. The meeting closed with Mrs. David Moore proposing a rising show of applause for the pastor for "showing us the truth".

Some questions and statements about the National Council of Churches' film "Operation Abolition" - spokesman, Rev. Frederic Reynard.

STATEMENT - Mr. David Turner. Mr. Turner noting that Rev. Reynard contended that the students' sole reason for forcibly resisting the law and fighting the police was because they could not get into the committee room and that they were not, in any way, led by "alleged Communists". Mr. Turner said that and these college students are adults whose rights must be maintained. Mr. Turner said that these teenage college students were far from adult being 17, 18 and 19 years of age when they attend college. Mr. Reynard replied that he did not consider this age bracket as a teenage group and he maintained that they were adult. Mr. Turner said that if the church wanted to support picketing and violence then he wondered why they chose to support it against the House Committee on Un-American Activities in the performance of its duty in protecting the security of the United States. "Why," he said, "doesn't the church support a group of teenage "adults" in picketing the Daily Worker? Why a part of our government?" Mr. Reynard said the church opposed the Committee because of its methods and cited an example. He explained that one year before the San Francisco riot the committee had subpoenaed various clergymen and college professors on the west coast. Such was the uproar caused by the issuing of these subpoenas that the committee decided not to hold the hearings at that time. This caused these subpoenaed people to be under a cloud as suspect. (Every subpoenaed person was invited by telegran and later by letter to appear and give testimony before the HUAC - most replied - all declined to appear)

STATEMENT - Mrs. Moore said that she did not think that the gentleman (Mr. Turner) understood what the pastor meant. She said that it "is the law" (not identified) that spectators to the HUAC hearings be admitted on a first come first served basis and that the students were angered at people being admitted on passes calling for 4 or 5 seats. She asked the pastor if the Congressmen profited personally by the sale of prints to the picture.

Pastor, "No".

STATEMENT - The pastor said he had written to J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI. "J. Edgar Hoover is not in favor of the picture Operation Abolition." He repeated emphatically, "J. Edgar Hoover is not in favor of this picture."

QUESTION - Donald Jason - "Do you mean that J. Edgar Hoover is unfavorable to this film Operation Abolition?"

Pastor, "Well, no. Actually he is neither for nor against. He won't say anything. Don't you see, he won't say anything either way."

(The complete report of the FBI issue as a government document bearing the title, "Communist Target - Youth", parallels the commentary of the film and goes into the causes and results in detail. It bears the name of J. Edgar Hoover.)

STATEMENT - Charles Dunn - "Concerning the remark you made that the film says that the Student Committee for Civil Liberties gave instructions for the students of the University of California to "laugh out loud at the hearing when things get ridiculous" and that this is not true as the student committee had not passed the resolution. Since we are dealing with half truths it seems important to note that the film says only that these words were printed in the official college paper and not that they represented the student committee feelings. I have a photostatic copy of "The Daily Californian" here, the student newspaper, dated Thursday, May 12, 1960. It has a front page article that says "The SCCL plans to picket the hearings today. It has issued a call for students to attend the rally and hearings and suggests that people laugh out loud in the hearings when things get ridiculous." I understand that this was proposed but voted down by the SCCL; nevertheless the film is absolutely correct and the paper did convey this information to the student body on Thursday. Would you like to see the photostat?"

Pastor - "No, as the important thing is that the committee did not vote the resolution. And the film does not tell you that."

C. Dunn - "Then you agree that the film is correct but feel that it should have told more?"

Pastor - "Yes, it was unfair not to add the rest."

C. Dunn - "Anyway, the part important in influencing the student behavior is told and the students did not have the proper information until after the hearings were over."

STATEMENT - Pastor Reynard - that he had personally interviewed a student eye witness to the San Francisco hearings. From this participant he had obtained a true account of the events there. The student stated that the noise in the hall did not disturb the hearings. (This fact seemed significant since the judge attempting to hold court in a room on a different floor of the city hall had called the police to remove the students due to the fact that he could not hear testimony in his court room.)

QUESTION - D. Jason - "Where was this student? Was he in the hearing room or in the hall?"

Pastor - "He was in the hall."

D. Jason - "If he was in the hall, how did he know what was going on in the committee room?"

Pastor - "He was there as a journalist for a student newspaper."

D. Jason - "Yes, but if he were in the hall how did he know what went on in the committee room?"

The pastor did not answer this question because it was answered from the audience.

Mr. A. Pelson, "He saw the film (Operation Abolition) of course!"

(I had to accept the fact that this "eye witness" was an eye witness to the film Operation Abolition.)

STATEMENT - Mr. Reynard said that he expected that the riots would never take place again even if the hearings were held once more in San Francisco. He said, "By then the students would be thoroughly instructed in the methods of passive resistance as used by the freedom riders."

STATEMENT - Mr. Pelson said that he did not see any shoe throwing or beating of the police with his night stick in this film.

P-TA EXECUTIVE MEETING

A meeting of the executive board of the Rochester Parent-Teachers Association was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Vaughan of Cushman Road with Mrs. Harry A. Brown, Jr., president, conducting the meeting and announcing persons who will serve on standing committees for 1961-62 season.

P-TA members discussed the possibility of the association sponsoring as a public service the film "Operation Abolition" to be shown in Rochester. Members felt because of its controversial nature the showing of the film would let persons make up their own minds and should prove a service to the townspeople. Also discussed was the possibility of showing a film similar to the one sponsored by the P-TA two years ago, "Molly Grows Up", which concerns a girl's formative early years. At that time Dr. Mary Louise Warren spoke to the girls present and a general discussion period was held. Mrs. Brown requested
